Offerings vary per semester and are not limited to those listed above.

All writing intensive courses in the Department of Languages and Culture Studies are taught entirely in English and do not require any knowledge of any language other than English.

(STUDENTS AND ADVISORS, PLEASE READ NEXT PAGE!)
Grade Requirements

- Only courses in which a student has earned a grade of C or better may count toward the Spanish major.

*Native and Heritage Speakers

- Highly proficient Spanish speakers should take SPAN 3203 or, by permission of the department, any other SPAN 3000- or any other 4000-level course taught in Spanish in lieu of SPAN 3202.

Prerequisites

- Please check prerequisites as you plan what courses you would like to take.
- SPAN 3208 is a prerequisite for SPAN 4208 and SPAN 4209
- SPAN 4208 or SPAN 4209 is a pre- or co-requisite for any SPAN-4000 Literature course.

Courses Taught in English

- SPAN courses taught in English do not count towards the Spanish major.

Writing Intensive Course Requirement

- All foreign language majors must take one W course offered within the department as part of their Gen Ed requirements. The writing in these courses is in English (except in SPAN 4700: Honors Project, where students may write in English or Spanish). Transfer students with an Associate’s Degree need to complete the requirement of the writing intensive course within the department offering the major.
- Complete list of GEN ED Writing Intensive courses: ARBC 3050, CHNS 3050, FREN 2200, FREN 2209, GERM 3050, GERM 3650, ITLN 3050, JAPN 3160, JAPN 3170, JAPN 4900, LACS 3050, LACS 3160, PORT 3050, RUSS 3060, RUSS 3209, SPAN 2009, SPAN 3009, SPAN 3019, TRAN 4404, TRAN 4144, TRAN 4244, TRAN 4434, TRAN 4444

Senior Seminar

- LACS 4690 Senior Seminar is a one credit-hour course. The course is graded “Pass/No credit.”
- Prior to graduation, Spanish majors must complete the following three (3) assessments as part of LACS 4690 (Senior Seminar): Departmental Modified Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI), Written Proficiency Sample, and Portfolio.

Certificate Programs

- Students are encouraged to consider adding one or more of the Certificates in Spanish to their major.
- Undergraduate Certificate Programs offered at this time are: Business Spanish, Hispanic Literary Studies, and Translating.

Honors Program

- For those students who maintain a 3.5 GPA in the Spanish major and a 3.0 GPA overall, the Department offers an Honors option.

Study Abroad

- We urge all Spanish majors and minors to participate in UNC Charlotte’s Semester in Spain program, Spanish Language and Culture in Costa Rica program (Summer), or in another approved study abroad program in a Spanish-speaking country.
- However, Spanish majors must complete at least nine hours of their 3000- or 4000-level classes in residence at UNC Charlotte. Transfer students and those who study abroad should consider this.

Interdisciplinary Minor in Linguistics

- Spanish majors and minors may be interested in this new interdisciplinary minor in linguistics, which is now being offered by the Department of English. The following classes in the Department of Languages and Culture Studies count towards this minor: TRAN 3601 Introduction to Translation Studies; SPAN 4231 Spanish Phonetics; SPAN 4232 Spanish Linguistics; SPAN 4233 History of the Spanish Language.

Teaching Licensure

- The Department of Languages and Culture Studies works in collaboration with appropriate departments in the College of Education to offer professional education coursework that can lead to licensure to teach in French, Spanish or German in a K-12 setting.
- NOTE: Taking only the (methods courses) MDSK 4200 and MDSK 4201 is insufficient for a teaching licensure. Please contact the Teacher Education Advising and Licensure (TEAL) office for more information.

Total hours required for the Spanish Major: Literature/Culture Concentration 31.
